

Franklin Parks & Recreation February Vacation Camp

The Franklin Parks and Recreation Department will be running a February Vacation Camp, where children will participate in a variety of activities both indoors and outdoors. This camp will begin on Monday, February 27th and end on Friday, March 3rd and is for children grades K-8. The program will be based out of the Bessie Rowell Community Center and optional field trips are available for an extra charge. Transportation will be provided to activities. All prices are final; trips may be canceled or changed due to inclement weather. Breakfast and afternoon snack will be provided. Students must bring their own lunch & morning snack. There will be snacks for sale in the office if you would prefer to send snack money. Please bring outside play clothes daily.
