

PRESS RELEASE

On September 27, 2013, members of the Franklin Police Department received information about a male subject wanted by the Strafford County Sheriff's Office for a violation of probation and Sanford Maine Police Department for burglary. The subject was identified as, John Jones, 33, of Somersworth, NH.

The Franklin Police Department located Jones in a vehicle in the parking lot of Hannaford's Grocery Store and he was arrested on the outstanding warrants. Jones was discovered to be in possession of Heroin incident to arrest. Jones was charged with possession of a controlled drug and remanded to the Merrimack County Department of Corrections without bail.

The driver of the vehicle Jones was found traveling in was identified as Melissa Patch, 31, of Somersworth, NH. It was learned Patch was wanted on an outstanding electronic bench warrant for reckless operation. Patch was arrested and remanded to the Merrimack County Department of Corrections in lieu of cash bail.

