

PRESS RELEASE

On September 28, 2013, members of the Franklin Police Department were dispatched to a residence on Thunder Rd. for a report of several people fighting. Upon arrival Officers made contact with the involved parties and learned one of the subjects, identified as Joseph Arsenault, 46, of Franklin, had allegedly exposed himself and performed an act of sexual contact on himself in the presence of a minor.

It was also alleged, during the altercation, Arsenault spit in the face of the mother of the involved minor.

Arsenault was arrested for one count of simple assault, three counts of misdemeanor indecent exposure and lewdness and one count of felony indecent exposure and lewdness.

Arsenault was remanded to the Merrimack County Department of Corrections in lieu of $2,000.00 cash bail.

